

Learn Over Teacher Reasonable Use Policy

1. Purpose

This policy outlines how teachers in schools may reasonably use Learn Over resources in their classrooms. It ensures that students benefit from the content while protecting Learn Over's intellectual property and brand integrity.

2. Permitted Use

- Use Learn Over lessons, worksheets, and digital resources as part of classroom instruction with their own students.
- Share printed worksheets or selected lesson content with their class.
- Refer students to Learn Over's platform for additional practice or reinforcement.

3. Restrictions

- Cannot Copy, modify, or redistribute Learn Over materials outside their classroom without written permission.
- Cannot Upload Learn Over materials to other platforms, websites, or school systems.
- Cannot Resell or rebrand Learn Over lessons, worksheets, or resources as their own.
- Cannot Remove Learn Over branding, logos, or watermarks from any material.

4. Attribution

When Learn Over materials are used in class, teachers should keep visible branding (logos, watermarks, or credits) intact.

5. Integrity of Use

- Materials should be used for student learning only, not for commercial gain.
- Teachers must encourage students to engage with the material responsibly and should not present Learn Over resources as their own creations.

6. Compliance

By using Learn Over materials, teachers agree to respect Learn Over's intellectual property and to comply with this policy.
