

Learn Over Copyright & Academic Integrity Policy

1. Ownership of Content

All lesson materials, worksheets, quizzes, and written resources provided on Learn Over are the intellectual property of Cyberfront Institute NGO. These resources are made available to students and parents for educational purposes only.

2. Use of YouTube & External Content

- Learn Over sometimes embeds or links to publicly available YouTube videos as reinforcement of key topics.
- These videos are not owned by Learn Over and remain the property of their original creators.
- Learn Over does not earn revenue or benefit from views of these videos; all benefits go directly to the content creator.
- By clicking a YouTube link, you may be taken offsite to the YouTube platform, which operates under its own terms and conditions.

3. Permitted Use

- Students and parents may download, print, or write in the worksheets for personal study.
- Tutors may use materials only in direct instruction of enrolled Learn Over students, not for redistribution nor classwork.
- Materials must remain in their original format with Learn Over branding visible.

4. Prohibited Use

- Copying, reproducing, or distributing Learn Over materials as your own is strictly prohibited.
- Tutors, teachers, or other third parties may not resell, rebrand, or present Learn Over resources as their own.
- Removing or altering Learn Over branding, logos, or watermarks is not allowed.

- Uploading Learn Over materials to other websites, platforms, or social media without permission is forbidden.

5. Academic Integrity

- Students are expected to complete their own work honestly. Copying from answer sheets or passing off another person's work as their own does not support true learning.
- Tutors and parents should guide and support, not complete student work.

6. Consequences of Misuse

Violation of this policy may result in:

- Suspension or termination of Learn Over access.
- Legal action under copyright and intellectual property laws of Trinidad & Tobago.
